Plumas Bancorp honored among best-in-class banking institutions: Bank performance adds to streak of annual recognitions from industry groups

2022-06-15

RENO, Nev., June 15, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Plumas Bancorp (NASDAQ: PLBC), the holding company of Plumas Bank, announced several recognitions by leading financial investment companies who evaluate the performance of financial institutions nationwide. The honors are awarded based on key performance indicators that signal positive value to potential investors and indicate an institution's ability to deliver consistent growth.

Building on its 40-plus year history of delivering excellence, Plumas Bancorp has once again been recognized with numerous awards from key groups in the financial industry. "Plumas Bank is focused on building strong communities — one business and one client at a time. That foundation drives us to provide banking excellence and deliver strong value to our clients, shareholders and local communities," said Andrew J. Ryback, President and CEO, Plumas Bancorp and Plumas Bank.

Ryback continued, "We're growing and performing very well despite the last two years of volatility with the pandemic and the wildfires that devastated our region. These achievements are a testament to the strategic vision of our board and executives and the incredible work of every team member."

Raymond James Bankers Cup awarded to Plumas Bancorp for the fifth straight year

For the fifth year in a row, Plumas Bancorp was awarded the prestigious Raymond James Bankers Cup. Plumas Bancorp ranked in the top 10% out of 229 community banks with assets between $500 million and $10 billion. Even more, it has consistently placed among the top five banks each year since 2017. The recognition is based on profitability, operational efficiency, and balance sheet metrics. The Community Bankers Cup highlights exceptional performance and rewards community banks that build long-term shareholder value.

Findley Reports awards Plumas Bancorp its highest recognition seven years in a row

For the seventh consecutive year, The Findley Reports, Inc. recognized Plumas Bancorp as a Super Premier Performing Bank — the highest of The Findley Report's recognition levels. Plumas Bank is one of just 84 western banks that received a Super Premiere rating for its 2021 performance. The annual review by Findley rates banks based on increased liquidity, capital adequacy, asset structure and growth, loan portfolio and deposit qualities, operating performance, equity return and senior management stability.

2022 KBW Bank Honor Roll names Plumas Bancorp among best-in-class banking institutions

For the first time, Plumas Bancorp was added to the coveted Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc., Bank Honor Roll. Honorees are publicly traded banking institutions with more than $500 million in total assets that consistently reported increases in annual earnings per share over the past decade. KBW found that 17 banking institutions, just 5% of all banks screened, qualified for inclusion on the 2022 KBW Bank Honor Roll.
