The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette Again Names WesBanco A Winner of the Pittsburgh Top Workplaces 2020 Award

2020-09-21

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 21, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- WesBanco, Inc. (Nasdaq: WSBC), a diversified, multi-state bank holding company, today announced that the western Pennsylvania market of its affiliate, WesBanco Bank, has been awarded a 2020 Top Workplaces honor by The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette. The Top Workplaces list is based solely on employee feedback gathered through a third-party survey administered by employee engagement technology partner, Energage, LLC. The anonymous survey uniquely measures 15 drivers of engaged cultures that are critical to the success of any organization: including alignment, execution, and connection.

"For the third consecutive year, WesBanco is honored to have been voted a Top Workplace by our employees," said Tony Rocco, WesBanco Market President for Western Pennsylvania. "For 150 years, our commitment to serving our neighbors and their businesses has never wavered, as we have maintained our strong community roots and focus on building trusted relationships. Our employees through their commitment to our 'Better Banking Pledge' have continued to serve our customers with integrity, dedication, and passion by responding to their needs and helping them navigate these unusual times and circumstances. I could not be prouder of the entire WesBanco team, and I would like to thank them for all that they do every day."

"In times of great change, it is more important than ever to maintain a connection among employees," said Eric Rubino, CEO of Energage. "When you give your employees a voice, you come together to navigate challenges and shape your path forward based on real-time insights into what works best for your organization. The Top Workplaces program can be that positive outcome your company can rally around in the coming months to celebrate leadership and the importance of maintaining an employee-focused culture, even during challenging times."
