NEWS RELEASE

Plumas Bancorp Recognized in D.A. Davidson's Fall 2019 Bison Select Report

2019-10-09

QUINCY, California, Oct. 09, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Plumas Bancorp (NASDAQ: PLBC), the parent company of Plumas Bank, is pleased to announce that it has met the criteria to be included in D.A. Davidson's Fall 2019 Bison Select Report. D.A. Davidson, a financial-services company, publishes this biannual research with a focus on recognizing high performing emerging institutions that may be overlooked by investors due to their size.

The group of Bison Select candidates are publicly traded banks across the nation that do not have formal sell-side coverage at the time of inclusion; have market capital levels that typically range from $25 million to $250 million; and meet specific performance thresholds based on return on assets, efficiency, credit quality, and capital hurdles.

Plumas Bancorp and Plumas Bank Director, President and Chief Executive Officer, Andrew J. Ryback, stated, "We are thrilled to be recognized as a Bison Select up-and-coming bank. Our commitment to delivering strong value to our shareholders and exceptional service to our clients continues to help us achieve sustained high levels of performance."
