PULTE HOMES OPENS NEW MODELS AT VERANDA HEIGHTS

Hayward Hills Community Offers Great Location, Variety of Home Plans

HAYWARD, Calif. – May 20, 2013 – Pulte Homes has opened two new models in Veranda Heights, a prime Hayward Hills neighborhood located within the guard-gated Stonebrae Country Club master planned community.

"With spectacular views and being so close to the best that the Bay has to offer, this location is very desirable for empty nesters and move-up families looking for a special place to call home," said Patricia Morgan, vice president of sales for Pulte Homes' Northern California Division.

Priced from the high $700s, Veranda Heights by Pulte Homes features new 3,143 to 3,220 square feet home plans, with two to six bedrooms and three and four baths. The two-story floor plans also offer the owners retreat on the main floor.

Veranda Heights by Pulte Homes is a little more than 30 miles from San Francisco and San Jose, with easy access to BART stations and major commute routes to the East and South Bay, Morgan said. The community is also near a new state-of-the-art K-6 elementary school, has access to 1,200 acres of dedicated open space and wildlife preserves, and is adjacent to East Bay Regional Parks.

Located at the highest point of East Bay Hills on 1,642 acres, Stonebrae Country Club boasts natural beauty and open spaces. Stonebrae offers golf, sports and social memberships, with amenities including an 18-hole championship golf course; clubhouse with fitness center, spa, and banquet rooms; tennis courts; swimming pools; as well as, hiking and biking trails.
