"Six Flags is synonymous with innovation and thrills for all ages, and we are delighted to partner with the Riverside Group to bring Six Flags thrills to China," said John Odum, President, Six Flags International Development Company. "The Six Flags park in Haiyan will be a spectacular park featuring our signature lineup of record-breaking roller coasters, family rides and attractions and world-class shows—along with themed sections of the park that pay homage to the storied Chinese culture."

The first phase of the mixed-use development project will be a new exhibition center that will open this fall and provide visitors an interactive preview of the upcoming offerings.

"Six Flags will be the centerpiece of the entire new resort development and will provide a major economic boon to tourism in the Yangtze River Delta and all of Eastern China," said Che Li, Chairman of the Riverside Investment Group. "We are proud to partner with one of the most recognizable brands in the world to create an international destination where visitors can shop, dine and create thrilling memories."
