"Holiday in the Park is the biggest and most immersive holiday celebration on the planet and we are thrilled that this magical, world-class event is now offered at thirteen of our parks," said Senior Vice President of US Park Operations Tom Iven. "From sweet and savory treats, to thrilling, nighttime coaster rides and pictures with Santa, Holiday in the Park is the perfect way to enjoy the wonder of the holidays with family and friends."

Signature Holiday in the Park offerings guests of all ages can enjoy, include:

- The world's most exciting roller coasters, rides and attractions;
- Millions of dazzling lights featuring synchronized displays choreographed to holiday tunes;
- Towering Christmas trees like the 200-foot tall Kalightoscope Tree at Six Flags Great America; a bright, beckoning symbol of holiday cheer;
- Time-honored family fun activities like cookie-decorating and ornament-making, along with new traditions like a petting zoo and camel rides at Six Flags St. Louis;
- Wood-burning fire pits, perfect for making s'mores and keeping warm and toasty;
- A wide assortment of seasonal menu items including red velvet funnel cakes, hand-dipped caramel apples, peppermint and mocha fudge and the brand new Taste of the Holidays at Six Flags Magic Mountain;
- Dozens of holiday-inspired photo locations like the all-new Deck the Halls at Six Flags Great Adventure featuring giant ornaments, stacks of presents and larger-than- life toys;
- Live entertainment with strolling carolers, choirs and elaborate stage productions including the Majesty of Christmas at Six Flags Fiesta Texas, featuring a reenactment of the Nativity with live animals;
- One-stop holiday shopping with hundreds of great stocking stuffers like apparel, unique ornaments and plush toys. For every Holiday Friend plush toy purchased, Six Flags will donate a plush to local children's hospitals and non-profit organizations while supplies last; and
- Expanded hours of operation giving guests more time to create thrilling family memories.

Holiday in the Park is open weekends and select days beginning November 17 and is included with all Season Passes and active Memberships. For specific park hours and information, visit http://www.sixflags.com.
