Two Directors Announce Intention to Retire

ARLINGTON, Texas--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Six Flags Entertainment Corporation (NYSE: SIX), the world's largest regional theme park company and the largest operator of waterparks in North America, today announced that Esi Eggleston Bracey and Enrique Ramirez Mena have been appointed to its board of directors, expanding membership to nine. These appointments represent the fourth and fifth new directors added this year.

"We are pleased to welcome Esi and Enrique as new independent directors to the Six Flags board," said Richard Roedel, Chairman of the Board. "They are exceptional business leaders with great records of accomplishment, and join Six Flags at a critical time as we move forward with our transformative work. These directors complement our board with a diversity of skills and experiences that will help our company reinvigorate growth and realize its full potential."

The company also announced that Richard Roedel and Kurt Cellar have advised the board of directors of their intention to retire and not stand for re-election at the company's next annual meeting of stockholders.
