Leading Real Estate Company Promotes Gregory Hausfeld to Regional Vice President of Portfolio Management

CINCINNATI--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Phillips Edison & Company (the "Company") is pleased to announce the promotion of Gregory Hausfeld to Regional Vice President of Portfolio Management in the Company's Southeast region.

In his new role, Mr. Hausfeld will leverage his proven leadership capabilities, deep knowledge of the grocery industry and strong brokerage relationships to oversee the Company's more than 85 properties in the Southeast region comprised of over eight million square feet.

"Phillips Edison's corporate culture focuses on recognizing, attracting and cultivating outstanding talent. We invest heavily in our team and the result is evident in our highly skilled professionals who are able to take on new challenges," said Joe Schlosser, Senior Vice President of Portfolio Management at Phillips Edison. "Greg was the natural choice for this role and we look forward to his continued success and outstanding contributions to the team."

Mr. Hausfeld, who joined Phillips Edison & Company in 2010 as a Financial Analyst, was promoted to Senior Underwriting Analyst in 2011 and to Director of Acquisitions in 2012. In 2015, he joined the Portfolio Management team as a Regional Director where he managed the performance of a portfolio of more than 60 properties in the Southeast.
