

Phillips Edison & Company Announces “Retail Intel” Podcast

May 22, 2018

Top National Brands Discuss Retail Industry Trends

CINCINNATI--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Phillips Edison & Company (“PECO”) announced the launch of its new podcast, Retail Intel, available on iTunes and at www.phillipsedison.com. On the show, Mike Conway, Vice President of National Accounts and Retailer Partnerships, welcomes guests to discuss emerging trends, insights and hot topics in the retail real estate industry.

“Our goal is to offer insights on a range of topics impacting the industry, including the innovations coming to market that are changing how we identify and react to changing consumer preferences,” said Mr. Conway. “Overall, brands have been incredibly inventive in introducing new ways to think about the retail format, and we aim to shine a light on this creativity and offer inspiration for the industry at large.”

Retail Intel debuted in December with guests including Ellen Latham and Dave Long, co-founders of Orangetheory Fitness; and Jeff Rubino, Vice President of Real Estate at Five Guys. Conway also hosted a behind-the-scenes look at the reinvention of Domino’s Pizza from its headquarters in Ann Arbor, Mich. The most recent podcast included an interview with Jesse Stiles, Vice President of Real Estate at Dogtopia.

To be part of a future Retail Intel podcast, stop by the Phillips Edison booth at ICSC RECon Monday – Wednesday, May 21-23 at S233 Q Street, South Hall.
