The Committee also shall have the power and authority vested in it by the Board as set forth in the stock option, restricted stock, incentive, deferred and other compensation plans of the Company (the “Plans”) and as otherwise set forth herein. With regard to Plans designed and intended to provide compensation primarily for the Senior Executive Group, the Committee shall have the power to interpret and approve, modify or amend all non-equity Plans and shall interpret and recommend adoption, modification or amendment of equity Plans to the Board.

2. Committee Members

The Committee shall consist of three or more members of the Board. All members, including the Chairman of the Committee (the “Chairman”), shall be appointed by the Board upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Each member of the Committee shall meet the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) for directors and compensation committee members, as determined by the Board, and each member of the Committee must qualify as a “non-employee director” for purposes of Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act. In addition, until such time as the Company no longer has any outstanding performance-based awards that are subject to the requirements of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code (the “Code”), each member of the Committee must qualify as an “outside director” for purposes of Section 162(m) of the Code. The members of the Committee shall be appointed for such term or terms as the Board may determine or until the earlier resignation or death of the member. The Board may, in its discretion, remove any member from the Committee at any time with or without cause.

Prior to selecting or receiving advice from any compensation consultant, external legal counsel or other adviser, and from time to time as the Committee deems appropriate, the Committee shall assess the independence of such adviser from management, taking into consideration all factors relevant to such adviser's independence, including factors specified in Section 303A.05(c) (or any successor provision) of the NYSE Listed Company Manual (the "NYSE Compensation Adviser Independence Assessment"). Such NYSE Compensation Adviser Independence Assessment, however, shall not be required with respect to any compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser whose role is limited to the following activities for which no disclosure would be required under Item 407(e)(3)(iii) of Regulation S-K: (i) consulting on broad-based plans that do not discriminate in scope, terms or operation in favor of executive officers or directors and that are generally available to all salaried employees; or (ii) providing information that either is not customized for the Company or that is customized based on parameters that are not developed by the adviser and about which the adviser does not provide advice. The Committee also shall assess whether the work of a compensation consultant retained by the Committee raises any actual conflict of interest, taking into account such factors as required by the SEC and applicable law and any other factors that the Committee determines are relevant, and, if so, shall promptly report such conflict of interest to the Board.
