Kohl's Gifts More Than $500,000 to Local Nonprofits Through Hometown Giving Program This Holiday Season

2024-11-18

More than 25 nonprofits in Milwaukee and Waukesha counties receive grants to support family health and wellness

MENOMONEE FALLS, Wis.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Kohl's (NYSE: KSS) today announced more than $500,000 in total donations to more than 25 nonprofits in Milwaukee and Waukesha counties through the Kohl's Cares Hometown Giving Program. Nonprofits supporting Kohl's philanthropic mission of improving family health and wellness in Milwaukee and Waukesha counties were selected following an open-application process; each nonprofit will receive a grant ranging from $5,000 to $25,000.

"Caring about our communities is at the heart of what we do at Kohl's, especially during the holiday season," said Tara Geiter, Kohl's director of community relations. "We're excited to again be granting more than $500,000 to a group of amazing nonprofits in Milwaukee and Waukesha counties who are all finding unique ways to improve the health and wellness of local families."
