Inspire Medical Systems, Inc. Announces Retirement of Casey M. Tansey from its Board of Directors

2026-07-22

MINNEAPOLIS, July 22, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Inspire Medical Systems, Inc. (NYSE: INSP), a medical technology company focused on innovative, minimally invasive solutions for patients with obstructive sleep apnea (OSA), today announced the retirement of Casey M. Tansey from the Inspire Board after more than eighteen years of service, effective July 30.

"We are thankful for the many contributions Mr. Tansey has made to our Board of Directors over the past eighteen years," said Tim Herbert, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Inspire Medical Systems. "As one of the first venture investors to recognize the potential impact of Inspire therapy for patients with OSA, Mr. Tansey has provided valuable mentorship, leadership, and perspective throughout the Company's founding, initial public offering and subsequent growth. We are grateful for his long-standing commitment and wish Mr. Tansey the very best in the future."

Mr. Tansey represented U.S. Venture Partners, led Inspire's Series A financing in November 2007 and has served on the Inspire Board of Directors since that time. The Company expects to announce the appointment of a new Director to replace Mr. Tansey in the near future.
