

QXO Celebrates Rachel Narveson as 2025 Female Roofing Professional of the Year

The founder and CEO of Proficient Construction in Lake Elmo, MN earns a $10,000 prize

GREENWICH, Conn. — June 18, 2025 — QXO, Inc. (NYSE: QXO) announced today that Rachel Narveson, Founder and CEO of Proficient Construction in Lake Elmo, MN, is the winner of its 2025 North American Female Roofing Professional of the Year program, an annual campaign celebrating the outstanding contributions, leadership, and professionalism of women in the roofing industry.

Now in its fifth year, the program shines a spotlight on female roofing professionals who are making a difference through innovation, mentorship, safety and a commitment of excellence in their field. Narveson won in a nationwide public vote against four other accomplished finalists.

For over two decades, Narveson has been breaking barriers and leading Proficient Construction in transforming homes and businesses in Minnesota and Wisconsin with high-grade materials. Under Narveson's leadership, Proficient Construction earned a BuildZoom score of 113, placing it in the top 3% of Minnesota contractors. Known for her responsiveness, professional excellence, and unwavering commitment to customer satisfaction, she has earned the trust of crews, clients and her community.

Narveson uses her platform to champion positive social change and inspire others by supporting organizations like Renew Hope, which focuses on combating sex trafficking and aiding survivors.

QXO Chief Human Resources Officer Josephine Berisha said, “Rachel’s commitment to empowering others make her a powerful example for the next generation. We’re proud to recognize her contributions to the industry and amplify the stories of women shaping the future of roofing across North America.”

As the 2025 honoree, Narveson earns a $10,000 prize, one year free of the Leap platform, a year of membership to National Women in Roofing, and one ticket to the 2026 NWIR Days event.

“It’s an honor to be recognized by my peers and the broader roofing community,” said Narveson. “This award wouldn’t be possible without the extraordinary women in our industry empowering one another and driving the industry forward. I hope my story inspires other women and other young professionals to pursue their passions.”

The four other finalists who will each receive funding to support their professional development are:

- Elizabeth Evans, Founder and CEO, E2 Roofing, Jacksonville, FL
- Stacey Lytton, COO, Horch Roofing, Warren, ME
- Sarah Sutton-Shouse, Service Manager, Raincoat Roofing, Broadview, IL
- Skye Williams, Founder and CEO, Samurai Roofing Services, Houston, TX

This year's finalists were selected from over 1,000 nominations across the US and Canada. The finalist selection committee was made up of female leaders across the industry including the Chair of National Women in Roofing, the publisher of Roofing Contractor, the president of RoofersCoffeeShop.com, female roofers and select leaders from QXO.

To learn more about QXO's annual Female Roofing Professional of the Year program, the finalists, and the program rules, visit: go.qxo.com/femaleroofpro.

About QXO

QXO is the largest publicly traded distributor of roofing, waterproofing and complementary building products in the United States. The company plans to become the tech-enabled leader in the $800 billion building products distribution industry and generate outsized value for shareholders. QXO is targeting $50 billion in annual revenues within the next decade through accretive acquisitions and organic growth. Visit QXO.com for more information.

Media Contacts:

Joe Checkler
joe.checkler@qxo.com
203-609-9650

Christina Alvarez
Mulberry Marketing Communications
calvarez@mulberrymc.com
708-908-0898