National Bank Holdings Corporation Appoints New Board Director

3/15/2024

DENVER, March 15, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- National Bank Holdings Corporation (NYSE: NBHC) announced today that its Board of Directors appointed Ms. Robin Doyle as a Director of the Company, effective March 18, 2024. Doyle will serve on the Audit & Risk Committee.

Doyle's distinguished career in international financial services has spanned over three decades with a focus in finance, regulatory affairs and risk management. She spent 28 years at J.P. Morgan in several senior management roles including managing director in their Office of Regulatory Affairs, and chief financial officer for the firm's risk management organization. After retiring from J.P. Morgan in 2021, Doyle started her own consulting firm focused on strengthening client's data and risk management capabilities. Doyle is on the board of Dress for Success Center New Jersey and serves as a member of the Executive Committee and chair of the Finance Committee. She has served as a founding board member of the Global Legal Entity Identifier Foundation, a founding board member for the Rutgers Business School Center for Women in Business, the Rutgers Business School Dean's Advisory Board, the board of New Jersey Junior Achievement, and the board of Easter Seals of New Jersey. Doyle has an MBA in Finance and a BS in Accounting from Rutgers University and she is certified as a CPA.

Tim Laney, the Company's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, said, "We are pleased to welcome Robin to our Board of Directors. Her strong audit and risk background complements the skills and experience of our established Board. We believe she will bring valuable insight as we continue to be vigilant around protecting our organization, our clients, and our communities."
