

NEWS RELEASE

Plumas Bancorp Releases 2026 Corporate Citizenship Report Highlighting Long-Term Value Creation, Community Impact and Sustainable Growth

2026-09-01

RENO, Nev., Sept. 01, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Plumas Bancorp (Nasdaq: PLBC), the parent company of Plumas Bank, today announced the release of its 2026 Corporate Citizenship Report, an in-depth look at the company's approach to community banking, workforce development, governance, client service, innovation and community investment. Titled "Building a Legacy," the publication reflects the company's 45-year history of creating long-term value for shareholders, clients, employees and the communities it serves.

"Strong community banks create value by investing in people, supporting local businesses and helping communities thrive," said Andrew J. Ryback, president and chief executive officer of Plumas Bancorp and Plumas Bank. "This report highlights the investments and relationships that have helped Plumas Bank grow while remaining true to the principles that differentiate community banking."

The publication highlights several areas that support the company's long-term strategy and competitive position, including:

- Continued investments in treasury management, digital banking capabilities and lending process enhancements designed to improve client experience and support business growth.
- Expansion of services and infrastructure supporting a growing client base while preserving local market leadership and relationship-focused banking.

- Ongoing investments in employee development, leadership training and succession planning initiatives that help strengthen the next generation of community banking leaders.
- Strong governance, enterprise risk management and cybersecurity programs designed to safeguard client information, maintain operational resilience and protect shareholder value.
- Community development, financial literacy and Community Reinvestment Act activities that help expand financial opportunity throughout the company's service footprint.

The publication also explores the company's evolution over four and a half decades, including its expansion into new markets, growth to more than $2 billion in assets, acquisition and integration of Cornerstone Community Bank, and continued recognition among the nation's top-performing community banks.

The full 2026 Corporate Citizenship Report is available on the company's Investor Relations website at Plumas Bancorp Investor Relations.

About Plumas Bancorp and Plumas Bank

Plumas Bancorp is the bank holding company for Plumas Bank, a locally managed, full-service community bank founded in 1980. Headquartered in Reno, Nevada, Plumas Bancorp trades on the Nasdaq under the symbol PLBC. Plumas Bank operates 19 branches serving communities throughout Northern California and Northern Nevada and maintains nationwide Preferred Lender status with the U.S. Small Business Administration. For more information about Plumas Bank, visit plumasbank.com.

Contact:

Jamie Huynh
Assistant Corporate Secretary & Investor Relations Coordinator
Plumas Bank
5525 Kietzke Lane Ste. 100
Reno, NV 89511
775.786.0907 x8908
investorrelations@plumasbank.com

Source: Plumas Bancorp