PULTEGROUP SELECTED AS A COMPONENT OF DOW JONES SUSTAINABILITY INDEX

Second consecutive year as the only homebuilder to be recognized in Dow Jones Sustainability North American Index

ATLANTA, Sept. 25, 2017 – National homebuilder PulteGroup, Inc. (NYSE: PHM) announced today that the Company has been selected as a component of the 2017 Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI). For the second consecutive year, the Company is listed as the only U.S. homebuilder in the Consumer Durables category on the DJSI North American Index.

“To be recognized again for our commitment to corporate responsibility validates our continuous efforts to grow as a leader in sustainable business practices,” said Ryan Marshall, President and Chief Executive Officer for PulteGroup. “It is truly an honor to be included on the DJSI as we continue to strive for excellence in our social and economic business practices and maintain superior quality in the overall homebuying experience.”

The DJSI North American Index represents the global benchmark for corporate responsibility and sustainability, tracking the performance of industry leaders that represent the top 20-percent of the 600 largest United States and Canadian companies in the S&P Global Broad Market Index.
