PULTEGROUP PROMOTES JOHN CHADWICK TO CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

ATLANTA, March 21, 2019 – PulteGroup, Inc. (NYSE: PHM), announced today that John Chadwick has been promoted to Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer effective April 1, 2019. He replaces Harmon Smith who had previously announced his plans to retire.

“We are extremely proud to announce John’s promotion, as he is a recognized leader within our organization and an outstanding operator who has managed some of our largest and most complex markets,” said Ryan Marshall, PulteGroup president and CEO. “His skills, expertise, and deep knowledge of the business will prove invaluable as we continue to advance the critical initiatives which have supported our Company’s success.”

Mr. Chadwick has had a 28-year career with the Company, and most recently served as Area President, West which encompasses Arizona, California, Nevada, New Mexico and Washington. He has also held key division president and finance roles as he has advanced through the organization. Mr. Chadwick holds a B.A. in Accounting from Michigan State University.
