EDMONTON, Alberta--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- BioWare™, a division of Electronic Arts Inc. (NASDAQ:EA), today announced that the epic role-playing game, Dragon Age™: Inquisition is now available in North America. Dragon Age: Inquisition is the next-generation of RPG from BioWare that combines powerful storytelling and compelling characters with beautiful, expansive open worlds for players to explore.

Winner of the official Game Critics Award for "Best RPG" at E3 2014, Dragon Age: Inquisition launches as one of the highest rated games for the new generation of consoles. Joystiq scored the game at 100, saying, "[Inquisition] sets the bar for what a blockbuster RPG should be." Game Informer also gave the game a 95 score, calling the game, "...an expansive and unforgettable journey."

"Our goal with Dragon Age: Inquisition was to bring players into the next-generation of role playing games with an experience that is truly your own, all in an immersive, visually stunning world," said Mark Darrah, Executive Producer. "It's the biggest story you can play this year, and finally all our years of hard work is in the hands of players around the world."

Dragon Age: Inquisition is set in an epic, dark fantasy world where players are empowered to shape and drive their experience. The game combines the storytelling legacy BioWare is known for, with deep RPG gameplay, all on a brand new RPG game engine underpinned by EA's cutting edge Frostbite™ 3 technology. Players will experience the hallmark BioWare is known for in Dragon Age: Inquisition including a vast, overarching narrative that presents players with engrossing choices that allow them to experience unique moments based on those decisions.
