WesBanco Named Among Newsweek's Best Regional Banks

2024-01-18

WHEELING, W.Va., Jan. 18, 2024 /PRNewswire/ -- WesBanco, Inc. (Nasdaq: WSBC), a diversified, multi-state bank holding company, announced today that its affiliate, WesBanco Bank, has been named one of America's Best Regional Banks and Credits Unions 2024 by Newsweek. WesBanco's rating places it among the top 250 regional banks in the nation and reflects its ongoing commitment to excellence in community banking.

"WesBanco is honored to be recognized as one of America's best regional banks," said Jeff Jackson, President and Chief Executive Officer of WesBanco. "This achievement underscores our commitment to providing exceptional financial services and reinforces our standing as a trusted community partner. We remain dedicated to fostering strong relationships, understanding the unique needs of our customers and delivering personalized solutions that support them in their financial journeys."

Newsweek's list recognizes the pivotal role regional banks and credit unions play in the financial fabric of the communities they serve. Newsweek based the list on a study of nearly 10,000 financial institutions, more than 35,000 customer interviews and almost 150 million online reviews. Institutions were rated based on their operational performance, health and stability and customer experience.

The Newsweek recognition is the latest in a series of national accolades WesBanco has received for financial performance, credit quality, community development, employer of choice and customer satisfaction. Most recently, WesBanco earned its eighth consecutive "Outstanding" FDIC Community Reinvestment Act rating for its work meeting the credit needs of the communities in which it operates, including low- and moderate-income neighborhoods.
