

Penguin Solutions, Inc. Related Person Transaction Policy

Introduction

This Related Person Transaction Policy (this “Policy”) has been adopted by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Penguin Solutions, Inc. (the “Company”) to ensure that:

- All Interested Person Transactions (as defined below) are subject to review and approval or ratification; and
- All disclosures required by the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and their related rules are timely made.

This Policy is intended to comply with Item 404 of Regulation S-K and supplement, and not to supersede, our other policies that may be applicable to Interested Person Transactions (as defined below). Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this Policy shall be interpreted only in such a manner as to comply with Item 404 of Regulation S-K. In the event of any conflict between this Policy and the Company’s Third Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association (as may be hereafter amended, the “Articles”), the provisions set forth in the Articles shall control.

Definitions

For purposes of this Policy, the following definitions apply:

“Immediate Family Member” means a person’s child, stepchild, parent, stepparent, spouse, sibling, mother-in-law, father-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, or any person sharing the person’s household (other than a tenant or employee).

“Related Person” means any of the following:

- 1 Any person who is or was (since the beginning of the last fiscal year for which the Company has filed an Annual Report on Form 10-K and proxy statement, even if such person does not presently serve in that role) an executive officer, director or nominee for director of the Company;
- 2 A beneficial owner of 5% or more of any class of voting securities of the Company; or
- 3 An Immediate Family Member of any of the foregoing persons.

“Interested Person Transaction” means any transaction, arrangement or relationship, or any series of similar transactions, arrangements or relationships, in which:

- 1 The aggregate amount involved will or may be expected to exceed $120,000 since the beginning of the prior fiscal year;
- 2 The Company or any of its consolidated subsidiaries was, is or will be a participant; and
- 3 A Related Person had, has or will have a direct or indirect interest (including any indebtedness or guarantee of indebtedness), but excluding the transactions described in the “Exceptions” section of this Policy. This also includes any amendment or modification to an existing Interested Person Transaction.

Policy and procedures

Each Interested Person Transaction must be reviewed and approved in advance (i) by the Audit Committee of the Board (the “Committee”); (ii) by the Chair of the Committee, if he or she determines it is impractical or undesirable for the full Committee to consider the transaction, provided that he or she is not a party thereto and subject to ratification at the Committee’s next regularly scheduled meeting; or (iii) if the Committee determines that such Interested Person Transaction should be considered by all of the disinterested, independent members of the Board, by the disinterested, independent members of the Board by the vote of a majority thereof. If advance approval of an Interested Person Transaction is not feasible, then the Interested Person Transaction shall be considered by the Committee and, if the Committee determines it to be appropriate, ratified at the Committee’s next regularly scheduled meeting. If the Committee does not deem ratification to be appropriate, the Company shall make all reasonable efforts to cancel or annul such transaction.

The reviewing director(s) (the “Reviewing Directors”) may approve or ratify the Interested Person Transaction only if they determine in good faith that, based on all of the relevant information available to them, the transaction is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. In determining whether to approve or ratify an Interested Person Transaction, the Committee will take into account, among other factors it deems appropriate, whether the Interested Person Transaction is on terms comparable to terms generally available in arm’s length dealings with an unaffiliated third-party under the same or similar circumstances and the extent of the Related Person’s interest in the transaction, taking into account the conflicts of interest and corporate opportunities provisions of the Company’s Code of Business Conduct and Ethics.

If the Company enters into a transaction that it subsequently determines may be an Interested Person Transaction or that subsequently becomes a Interested Person Transaction, then the Interested Person

Transaction shall be presented to the Committee for approval or ratification at the Committee's next regularly scheduled meeting.

No director shall participate in any discussion or approval of an Interested Person Transaction for which he or she (or an Immediate Family Member) is a Related Person, except that the director shall provide all material information concerning the Interested Person Transaction to the Committee.

If an Interested Person Transaction will be ongoing, the Committee may establish guidelines for the Company's management to follow in its ongoing dealings with the Related Person. Thereafter, the Committee, on at least an annual basis, shall review and assess ongoing relationships with the Related Person to see that they are in compliance with the Committee's guidelines and that the Interested Person Transaction remains appropriate.
