

Sonoco Named One of the 25 Top Companies for Leaders in North America by Aon Hewitt, The RBL Group and Fortune

November 9, 2011

HARTSVILLE, S.C., Nov 09, 2011 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Sonoco (NYSE: SON), one of the largest diversified global packaging companies, has been named to the 2011 list of North American Top Companies for Leaders, announced Allan McLeland, vice president, Human Resources. Sonoco was ranked number 16 on this year's list of North American Top Companies for Leaders.

Conducted by Aon Hewitt, the global human resource consulting and outsourcing business of Aon Corporation (NYSE: AON), in partnership with The RBL Group, a strategic HR and leadership systems advisory firm, and Fortune magazine, the Top Companies for Leaders list is the most comprehensive study of organizational leadership in the world. An expert panel of independent judges selected and ranked winners based on criteria including strength of leadership practices and culture, examples of leader development on a global scale, impact of leadership in communities in which they operate, business performance and company reputation.

"Sonoco is very proud to be recognized as a Top Company for Leaders for a fourth consecutive time and to be the only packaging company on this year's list," said McLeland. "The belief that 'People Build Businesses' has always been an integral part of our culture, which is why our managers, not HR, take the lead in selecting, developing and retaining Sonoco's leaders. Managers give their people ongoing coaching, focused training and exposure to new areas through special projects. They also make sure their people know they're valued, regularly communicate where they stand in terms of career growth and reward them based on performance."

When comparing its Top Companies with more than 470 other companies worldwide, Aon Hewitt identified a common characteristic that sets them apart from their peers--Top Companies are committed to building leadership capability within their organizations.

"Aon Hewitt would like to congratulate Sonoco on being named one of the North American Top Companies," said Pete Sanborn, global leader of the Talent and Organization Practice with Aon Hewitt. "Through our research, it's clear that Top Companies such as Sonoco understand the connection between investing in leaders and financial success. Leaders at these organizations are passionate and committed. They have a focus on talent and developing leaders in a manner that is aligned with business goals."

Other companies making the 2011 list are IBM; General Mills; Procter & Gamble, Colgate-Palmolive; McDonald's; Whirlpool; PepsiCo; General Electric; Deere & Company; Target; 3M; Eli Lilly; McKinsey & Company; Intel; Capital One; V.F. Corporation; Raytheon; Fluor; United Health Group; Honeywell; AT&T, Accenture; American Express Bank; and Kiewit Corporation.
