Consultations Available at Pack Expo 2015 in Las Vegas

HARTSVILLE, S.C., Sept. 16, 2015 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Sonoco (NYSE:SON), one of the largest diversified global packaging companies, has expanded its commercial offerings in adhesives, adding the SonoBond™ family of adhesives specialized for consumer and industrial packaging applications.

Sonoco produces liquid, dry blend and hot melt adhesives for the packaging industry. It custom formulates these standard offerings to meet unique customer needs, enhancing performance and productivity. The Company has produced adhesives for its own packaging and assembly applications for more than 60 years, specializing in adhesives designed for point-of-purchase displays, paper tubes, boxes, paperboard containers, angleboard, and more.

“We are in a unique position of not only being a manufacturer of adhesives but a user as well, so we understand the need for excellent service, quality and productivity for our customers,” said Rick Turner, sales manager, Sonoco Adhesives. “We’re committed to providing the expertise and reach of a 116-year-old global packaging company, paired with the service-oriented approach and customization options of a much smaller company.”

To learn more about Sonoco’s adhesives offerings, visit www.sonoco.com/adhesives or call +843/383-7272. Consultations about customized adhesives will also be available at the upcoming Pack Expo 2015 tradeshow in Las Vegas, Sept. 28-30, at Booth S-5984.
